Tour the Port of Norvik

Set to open in May 2020, Stockholm's new port is one of the most exciting infrastructure projects of the last years. The participants of the BPC 2019 will have the unique chance to take a closer look at what's exactly going on at the project site and see the last works being carried out as it nears completion.

More details regarding the study tour will be available soon.

Important note – the number of seats will be limited. Please inform us if you are interested in attending the study tour.
